Confidentiality Agreement

In order to plan effective resident/family treatment, it is necessary for The Children's Home to collect, develop, and retain confidential material regarding clients and their families.

Every volunteer or consultant of The Children's Home must maintain the highest standards of confidentiality regarding this information. The names of clients, descriptions of the circumstances that necessitated their placement, their course of treatment within The Children's Home, and family involvement must never be discussed in situations unrelated to the work place. The misuse of such information is extremely serious.

I, _____, understand and accept my (Print Name)
obligation to protect the confidentiality of information regarding clients and their families.
